LAW 4203 LAW AND POPULAR CULTURE

This seminar course critically examines the legal and social significance of particular works of popular culture, such as movies, television programs, novels, news media, and advertising. It explores a variety of issues, including the influence of popular culture on law; popular perceptions of lawyers and legal institutions; the use of popular cultural texts and techniques in legal practice; and the capacity of law and popular culture to generate social meaning. The course is multi-disciplinary. It focuses on legal scholarship but also incorporates insights from film studies, psychology, cultural criticism, sociology, and literary theory.

LAW 5013-5018 COMPETITIVE MOOTS

Students who compete in Moot Court Competitions approved by Faculty Council will receive three credit hours for participating in those competitions. Except with permission of the Office of the Dean, a minimum grade point average of 3.0 in the previous academic year is required to be registered for a competitive moot. These approved Moots are as follows:

LAW 5013 Harrison Shield Moot (second term) The Harrison Shield Moot Competition is limited to third year students at UNB and, in its recent history, has involved the mooting of a current issue of public interest.

LAW 5014 Trilateral Moot (first term) The Trilateral Moot involves competition with the University of Maine and Dalhousie University. The problem traditionally mooted is a conflict of laws issue of current interest to both Canadian and American lawyers and academics.

LAW 5015 Gale Cup Moot (second term) Recently this national Moot has involved a criminal/constitutional issue arising out of the Charter of Rights and Freedoms.

LAW 5016 Jessup International Law Moot (first term; Pre- or co-requisite: International Law and Organizations or the permission of the instructor) This is the leading international law moot. The Canadian Round is part of a US-based competition typically involving teams from 50-70 countries. Canadian winners enter an international finals competition in Washington, DC.

LAW 5017 Laskin Administrative and Constitutional Law Moot (second term) This is a national Moot in which at least one UNB representative must moot in French.

LAW 5018 McKelvey/Sopinka Cup Moot (second term) The Sopinka Cup Moot is a trial moot sponsored by the American College of Trial Lawyers. Mooters examine and cross-examine witnesses and deliver opening and closing addresses to a jury of evaluators made up of judges and lawyers. UNB competes against University of Moncton and Dalhousie University for the McKelvey Cup (named in honour of E. Neil McKelvey, Q.C. of the Law firm Stewart McKelvey Stirling Scales.) The winner of the regional competition travels to Ottawa to compete nationally for the Sopinka Cup. Students must write a substantial paper on an issue related to current trial practice. Limited to students who have successfully completed not less than sixty credit hours of courses taken for credit towards their law degree.
